OUT WITH A BANG

Cops... and donut shops...

The jokes used to bother me, way back when I was an idealistic, wet behind the ears rookie. Now, as a veteran policeman with twenty five years of service under my belt, I no longer cared one way or another. Thick skin is essential in this profession. Thankfully – for myself and others – I had developed an impenetrable hide.

Of course my impending retirement had a lot to do with this. These days nothing, and I mean nothing, could sour my mood. A leisurely life in sunny Florida awaited; all I had to do was survive tonight's shift, the very last obstacle wedged between me and sweet freedom.

Presently nursing a cup of coffee, I sat at the counter of my preferred donut shop –the only customer at the moment – and chatted with the waitress.

"Not once, huh?" Gloria shook her head in dismay. "That's amazing, especially in this cesspool of a Rust Belt city . . ."

"Actually," I said, "it's not that uncommon; lots of officers go their entire careers without ever firing their weapons." I rapped my knuckles against the counter for good luck. "Looks like my name will be added to the list."

Thus far my last shift had been uneventful, even downright boring. I hoped it remained that way.

I finished my coffee and donut. "Well, Gloria, I'd better get on out of here."

It was a bittersweet moment. I would probably never see her again. She had been giving me free coffee and donuts for years, listening to me jaw about this and that. I was going to miss her something awful.

She came around the counter and gave me a hug. "It's been a real honor. You take care of yourself, Ricky."

"Likewise," I said.

I slid behind the wheel of my cruiser and backed out of the parking lot, thinking less than pure thoughts about Gloria. She was a fine woman, for sure. Working on her feet had kept her in tiptop shape. The free coffee and donuts were great, sure, but she had been the real draw, reeling me into the diner every night like a well trained dog.

Hands on the wheel, prowling the blighted labyrinth of my beat, I berated myself for having failed to ask her out. Now it was too late.

I stopped at a red light. And that's when I heard the call for a 211 in progress – an armed robbery at the diner I had just left!

I parked in the alley behind the donut shop.

Waiting for backup wasn't an option, not with Gloria's life in danger. Gun drawn, I entered through the backdoor. A pimply faced dishwasher cowered on the floor, trying to remain as inconspicuous as possible. Clutching a cell phone protectively, he must've been the one who had called 911. The poor kid was scared shitless. He registered my presence with bulging eyes. I held a finger to my lips.

Moving stealthily through the kitchen, I encountered the portly short order cook. Spatula in hand, he stood there at the flattop grill, frozen with fear as he watched the spectacle via the pass-through window.

"That's it!" Gloria insisted from behind the cash register. "That's all we've got!"

Unhappy with his take, the masked gunman demanded that she open the safe.

"I don't know the combination," Gloria replied hysterically.

"Don't give me that bullshit!" The thug waved his gun in her face.

Enough was enough, I decided. It was time to make my presence known. I rushed out of the kitchen, holding my weapon in a two-handed combat stance.

"Police! Drop your weapon!"

The cretin pivoted in my direction. I felt the bullet whiz past my left ear. Then I returned fire – two rounds in rapid succession. The volley punched through his chest. He hit the floor and stayed there, unmoving, blood pooling around his body.

You're making it awfully hard to leave," I told Gloria.

She looked up at me and grinned. "I'll take that as a compliment."

I watched in amazement as she resumed sucking my dick. Sitting on the edge of her bed, I could hardly believe my good fortune. I had stopped by her apartment the day after the incident, a quick detour before leaving town, this after she had texted me a rather lewd photo with the following message – Ready for your going away present?

Now I leaned back on my elbows and enjoyed the experience. Lips wrapped around my turgid pole, Gloria pumped her head with frenzied speed, blowing me like a seasoned cock gobbler. It wasn't long before she focused on my balls, licking and suckling them while stroking me with one hand. The combination of her lips/tongue on my nuts while her hand tugged my prick was out of this world.

And here I had been worried about her well-being following the robbery. Clearly, Gloria had made a full recovery . . .

Still stroking my cock, she came up for a breather. "This isn't just a going away present, you know. It's also a token of my appreciation for saving my life. There's no telling what would've happened if you hadn't shown up when you did . . ."

"I was just doing my—"

I had intended to say "job" but never got around to it. The word got stuck in my throat, becoming a protracted groan when Gloria resumed sucking my balls, servicing each one with loving care. She slowed the pace of her hand, lest I blew my wad too soon.

"Are you ready to fuck me, copper?"

"Ex-copper," I replied.

She stood before me, removing her waitress uniform – no doubt she had worn it just for me – with seductive slowness. My excitement revved as I gazed upon her progessively naked body. Gloria was one seriously fine thirty-something. A younger man would've referred to her as a MILF. Being roughly the same age as her, I had no use for such a designation.

"Like what you see?" she asked, squeezing and caressing her beautiful tits.

I got up. Now it was her turn to recline on the bed.

Gloria lay there, teasing her conical nipples as I moved between her legs, pushing them apart rather forcefully. Without hesitation, I plunged my cock into her pussy, delighting in the wet heat of her snug snatch. Gloria moved with my thrusts, gyrating her hips with much deftness, her movements matching mine perfectly.

I came a fraction of a second after she did, pulling out and basting her tits with much cum.

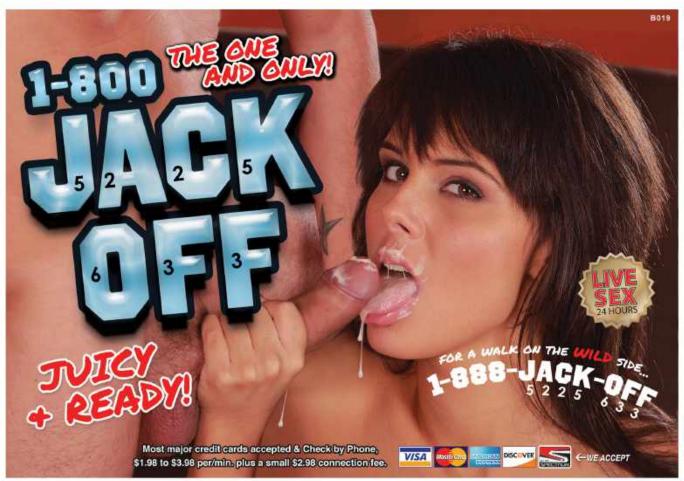

I got dressed at her second floor window, staring at the boxy truck parked on the street. I had rented the truck; as well as a vehicle trailer for my car. The drive ahead was sure to be long and lonely. What the hell, I reasoned, can't hurt to ask . . .

"Hey, Gloria, you feel like taking a trip?"

Her face lit up. "Why, Ricky, I'd love to."

We took it nice and slow, enjoying the scenery and each other all the way down to Florida. This was months ago. And Gloria has yet to leave.
